

To Privately Financed Students:

2014 DoCoMo Scholarship for International Students

If you would like to apply for this scholarship, please come to the International Affairs Division to pick up the application. The deadline for submission of application is April 18, 2014.

IMPORTANT! If you apply for this scholarship, you will not be able to submit for other scholarship application forms until you receive the result from this foundation around early July. (e.g. Gakushu-shoureihi Scholarship, Tottori Prefectural International Exchange Foundation Scholarship, etc.)

*After you know the result that you are not able to receive this scholarship, you will be able to apply for other scholarships through the University.

Qualified Applicants:

- 1) Private-financed students who will enroll in Master's course in April 2014, and whose major will be either of the followings.
 - (a) Communication Technology- or Information Processing Technology-related field
 - (b) Students whose major is not the above (a), but use Communication or Information Processing in your research
- 2) Students from India, Indonesia, Korea, Cambodia, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Taiwan, China, Nepal, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Philippines, Bhutan, Brunei, Viet Nam, Malaysia, Myanmar, Maldives, Mongolia, Laos and East Timor
- 3) Students who have a purpose and plan of his/ her studying and can make efforts.
- 4) Students who have well enough Japanese language skill to follow classes at the graduate school.
- 5) Students who can receive recommendation from the University
- 6) Students who will not receive any other scholarship other than DoCoMo Scholarship during the period of Master's course

Scholarship: Monthly allowance is 120,000yen for 2 years (April, 2014 - March 2016)

The Number of Scholarship Recipients: 20 students in Japan

3 applicants from Tottori University

*You need to write down your application forms in Japanese.