Chungnam National University (CNU)

CNU is one of the four prestigious national universities in the Republic of Korea. It was founded in May 25, 1952, and now consists of 17 colleges, 1 graduate school, 13 professional graduate schools, 43 research institutes, 23 auxiliary organizations, and 1 university hospital. CNU has more than 30,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs with around 1,500 international students and 1,500 faculty & academic staff. CNU is in partnership with 301 universities in 50 countries.

Daejeon, Republic of Korea (South Korea)

South Korea is an East Asia nation on the southern half of the Korean Peninsula. It is known for its green, hilly countryside dotted with cherry trees and centuries-old Buddhist temples, plus its coastal fishing villages, tropical islands and high-tech cities such as Seoul, the capital.

Daejeon is South Korea's fifth largest metropolis with 1.5 million population. Located in the center of South Korea, Daejeon serves as a hub for transportation and is at the crossroads of major transport routes. Daejeon is one of South Korea's administration hubs and is home to 18 universities including Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology (KAIST) and Chungnam National University (CNU). Daejeon has earned its name as 'Asia's Silicon Valley' and 'High Technology City.'
