

Program for Nurturing Multicultural Collaboration in Global Society

Center for International Affairs,
Tottori University, JAPAN

Brief Introduction

Program Purpose and Participation:

- ◆ Started in 2004, program provides foreign students an opportunity to study Japanese language and experience Japanese culture and to interact with students from other countries through Japanese language.

- ◆ Current participation:
Korea, Taiwan, Indonesia, Mexico, Canada and Australia.

Program outline

◆ Duration: 4 weeks (from June 26 to July 21)

◆ Activities:

Mornings : Japanese Language classes(2 level)

Afternoons & Weekends:

Cultural Activities & Local Excursions

1 Weekend: Homestay (three-day and two-night)

City attraction tour

Making Japanese
Soba noodle

Interaction with elementary school students

Making traditional doll

◆ Participation fee: 90,000JPY

Includes: tuition and accommodation

Lecture

Presentation

Community café

Paper making

Tea ceremony

Recycling plant

Accommodation : Shared house

Room

Kitchen

Dinning & Living

Shower & Toilet

Home stay (2 nights)

