

To prevent an accident on the road

Traffic accidents between a bicycle and a car are increasing.

Confirm that there is no car crossing from the other side of an intersection when you are crossing it. Don't enter the intersection without confirming the safety!

And don't wear headphones when you are riding a bicycle and walking on the street. Because you can't notice that cars are coming.

