Certificate of Eligibility

Foreign students whose entrance to Tottori University are certain have an option to apply for the certificate of eligibility to an immigration office in Japan several months before their entrance date so that the time of obtaining Visa at a Japanese embassy in their country might be shorten.

For "Short-stay Visa" (within 15-day stay, or 90-day stay in Japan), you cannot apply for certificate of eligibility at an immigration office in Japan. Please take procedures in person at a Japanese embassy or consulate in your country.

*If you submit a document written in other than Japanese or English, you must attach either Japanese or English translation.
