Please refer to Guide to Taking Common Subjects or the Web Version of the Syllabus in the Tottori University Academic Affairs System.

<https://www.tottori-u.ac.jp/3890.htm>

(5) Registration

Regular undergraduate international students are to lay down a study plan so that you can satisfy the graduation requirements of your own faculty and register to take courses at your own faculty.

You can get one credit from one "Japanese Language" subject and two credits from one "Japanese Culture and Society" subject.

Regular undergraduate international students can convert maximum 8 Japanese Culture and Society credits to liberal-arts credits and can also convert maximum 6 Japanese Language credits to foreign language credits. However, they can only convert maximum 12 credits in total. (Please refer to Guide to Taking Common Subjects.)

Japanese Studies Program students and special auditing students are to register at their own faculty, too.

As for "Japanese for Regular Undergraduate Students I," it is only offered to regular undergraduate international students only.

(6) Examination and Evaluation

Please refer to the syllabus.

This course will develop your basic communication skills in Japanese as it helps you acquire necessary expressions, based on topics which the original textbook Nihongo Niko Niko.

JAPANESE B

Based on the latter half of the textbook Dekiru Nihongo Shokyu published by Alc, students will learn basic sentence patterns and expressions so that they can perform better communication. Students will also learn to read and write relatively short articles, using the first half of Tanoshii Yomimono 55 published by Alc.

JAPANESE C

Based on the textbook Dekiru Nihongo Sho-chukyu published by Alc, students will learn new expressions by connecting them with the expressions they have already acquired so that they will be able to understand and express situations and feelings more accurately. Students will also learn to read and write relatively long articles, using the latter half of Tanoshii Yomimono 55 published by Alc.

JAPANESE D

By using the textbook Dekiru Nihongo Chukyu published by Alc, students will improve their thinking power and communicative competence for attaining the goal of their action, based on the theme of each unit. Also, composition time is set up once a week, and students practice so that they can summarize their opinions about a designated topic appropriately or write a text that fits the purpose or situation.

KANJI WORKSHOP

You will choose a textbook that fits you, and you will study KANJI at your own pace with a Japanese student partner. (If you have your own KANJI textbook, please bring it.)

Yonago Campus

ELEMENTARY

By referring to the textbook NIHONGO 45 jikan published by Senmon kyoiku publishing, students will improve their basic communication skills in Japanese, acquiring necessary expressions.

INTERMEDIATE

Referring to the textbook Tsunagu Nihongo Shokyu 2 published by ASK, students will learn Japanese so that they can form smooth human relationships through Japanese, focusing on conversations needed in laboratories.
