The use of face masks became mandatory in public places in La Paz

Edika whitney/ March 29, 2021

This past year, as in all the world, La Paz has had to adapt to the pandemic, but most things remain the same. Tourism activities did not stop, but the number of flights to the city was reduced, also the work capacity in the hotels and other services. Mass events are suspended, for example, this year was the first time in 132 years that La Paz Carnival was canceled.
